1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over applicant's admitted PRIOR ART figure 2 in view of Liu (6519060).

The applicant's "prior art figure 2" teaches a first ring network (top fiber portion), a second ring loop (bottom fiber portion), a pair of switches (110 and 120), multiplexer(12), demultiplexer (14). Although it does not teach specifics about filters connected to a bypass path, Liu et al teach that it is well known to use filters (302, 402) and an express lane in order to pass signals that are not affected. It would have been obvious to use express lanes in the system of the PRIOR art Figure 2 in order to avoid noise caused in the channels that are not used at a particular ADM. Although Liu does not specify that the filter is an interleaver, it would have been obvious to use an interleaver in the system of Liu if the signals that a particular ADM were using/not using were interleaved signals.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422

Art Unit: 2613

F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1,2,5,7,8,10 of U.S. Patent No. 7133609.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because although the patent does not specifically teach that the filter means are interleavers, it is well known to use interleavers as filtering means depending on which wavelengths are to be bypassed. it would have been obvious to use an interleaver in the system of the patent if the signals that a particular ADM were not using/not using were interleaved signals.
